regard to the conditions of all that lade any wares to be transported out of the realm by sea

26th April A PROCLAMATION AGAINST UNAUIIIORISID Posrs.

A Proclamation is published forbidding any to cairy packets or letters to the countries beyond the seas except such as are ordinarily nominated to this service by the Master of Posts or otherwise show good warrant for their voyages and despatches under the hands of one of the principal Secretaries, an Ambassador, or others sufficiently authorised All in authority, and especially the searchers, customers and controllers of the ports, shall make diligent search of all mails, budgets, and other carriages of such disavowed carriers, messengers and suspected persons coming or going out of the realm with packets of letters, all such discovered to be apprehended and kept in custody until by the view of their writings, sent up to the Privy Council, it is seen and advised what further should be done with them*

zgth April * THE SHEPHERD'S STAR '

The Shepherd's Star being a paraphrase dialoguewise upon the third of the Canticles of Theocritus, in prose, part with songs interspersed, is entered It is written by Mr Thomas Bradshaw, lately a gentleman of the company and retinue of the Lord Burgh at Brille

302^ April FLORIO'S ᶜ SECOND FRUITS '

Signor John Flono, that wrote the First Fruits, being an induction to the Italian tongue, thirteen years since, now perfecteth his Second Fruits in twelve chapters, both in the Italian tongue and the English In these witty and familiar discourses many subjects are treated of, such as the set at tennis, games of cards or chess, fencing, the thirty bodily parts of beauty in a woman, ending with a pleasant discourse of love and women To this book is added The Gardtne of Recreation, yielding six thousand Italian proverbs

znd May LODGE'S * ROBERT, DUKE OF NORMANDY '

The famous, true and historical life of Robert, second Duke of Normandy, sumamedfor his monstrous birth and behaviour^ Robert the Devtl, is sent to the press, being dedicated to Mr Thomas Smith, and penned by Mr Thomas Lodge, that last year wrote Rosalynde, Euphues Golden Legacy*